2 DECADES OF PLAY

Previously known as Today's Playground and
Play & Playground Magazine
SINCE 2001

22 years ago our magazine launched as the authority on play structures, amenities, and industry trends. Years later fresh faces added an emphasis on the importance of play for children. Now, we honor our playful history by continuing to be a voice in recreation and play advocacy.

We've made it easy to partner with us in 2024 by simplifying our media guide, ad structure, and rates.
